WKU Honors Band 2026 Conductors

Dr. Jayme Taylor, conductor of the 9/10 Big Red Honors Band, is Assistant Professor of Music and the Associate Director of Bands at Colorado State University where he conducts the Symphonic Band and serves as the Director of Athletic Bands directing the Colorado State University Marching Band, Rampage Basketball Band, and Presidential Pep Band. Prior to his appointment at CSU, Dr. Taylor served as Assistant Professor of Music Education and conductor of the Wind Ensemble at Carson-Newman University, and as Assistant Director of Bands and Assistant Director of Athletic Bands at the University of South Carolina. He earned degrees from the University of South Carolina (DMA) studying under James K. Copenhaver and Dr. Scott Weiss, and from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (M.M. in Conducting, B.M. in Music Education). Dr. Taylor is an active clinician and adjudicator of both concert and marching ensembles and is also a prolific drill designer for high school and collegiate marching bands. He has served as a middle and high school band director in East Tennessee and has extensive experience as an instructor and member with several drum and bugle corps including the Bluecoats of Canton, Ohio, Cavaliers of Rosemont, Illinois, and Troopers of Casper, Wyoming. Dr. Taylor is a member of the College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA), the National Band Association (NBA), the Colorado Bandmaster's Association (CBA), the National Association for Music Education (NAfME), Pi Kappa Lambda, and is an alumnus of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Dr. Taylor resides in Fort Collins with his wife Missy and their son Avery.

Dr. Scott Bersaglia, conductor of the 11/12 Gray Honors Band, serves as the Pastor of Worship at Grace Baptist Church in Somerset, KY. Before entering full-time ministry, he held conducting positions at Campbellsville University, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, The University of Michigan, as well as at Pikeville Independent Schools and Laurel County Schools. Dr. Bersaglia is the Founder and Music Director of the Sacred Winds Ensemble and serves as President of Sacred Winds Ministries. In 2022, he was appointed Director of the Somerset Big Band. He earned a Doctor of Musical Arts and a Master's degree in conducting from The University of Texas at Austin, and he holds a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Morehead State University. His principal conducting teachers include Jerry Junkin, Richard Miles, and Greg Detweiler. He is a member of the Kentucky Music Educators Association and currently serves as the State Band Chair. Additionally, he holds memberships in Phi Mu Alpha, Tau Beta Sigma, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Phi Beta Mu International Band Fraternities. Bersaglia resides in Somerset with his beloved wife and their two wonderful daughters.

Dr. Eric Smedley, conductor of the 11/12 White Honors Band, is Associate Professor of Music in Bands at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, where he directs the Symphonic Band, teaches undergraduate and graduate instrumental conducting courses, and serves as the director of the Big Red Basketball Band. Smedley earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Washington and Master of Music and Bachelor of Music Education degrees from the Jacobs School of Music. He previously served on the music faculties of Boise State University and Western Kentucky University, and as a public-school music educator in Cocoa Beach, Florida; Santa Monica, California; and Kenosha, Wisconsin. He has conducted throughout North America and in Vietnam, Poland, Russia, and Japan. Smedley maintains an active schedule as a clinician, guest conductor, adjudicator, and trumpet performer. His Symphonic Band was selected to perform at the 2018 College Band Directors National Association North Central Conference. He was a finalist at the 2023 Warsaw Wind Band Conducting Competition in Warsaw, Poland. In 2025, Navona Records released the album Origins and Expansions, featuring a composition by Kevin Bobo, world-renowned steel pan soloist Liam Teague, and the IU Wind Ensemble. Smedley's research interests are varied and include projects in the areas of contemporary wind band literature, wind band orchestration, and conducting pedagogy. His book chapters on composers Joseph Turrin, John Mackey, and David Dzubay are published in A Composer's Insight: Thoughts, Analysis, and Commentary on Contemporary Masterpieces for Wind Band, and he has additional research published in the Teaching Music through Performance in Band series. He is also an empirical researcher, most recently publishing "Conductor Gestures Influence Evaluations of Ensemble Performance" in the refereed journal Frontiers in Psychology. Smedley is a member of the Gamma chapter of the international band fraternity Phi Beta Mu and is an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. He is a member of the College Band Directors National Association and the National Association for Music Education. He lives in Bloomington, Indiana, with his wife, Jessica, their daughter, Ella, and their Bedlington Terriers, Piper and Finn.

Dr. Scott Tobias, conductor of the 11/12 Red Honors Band, currently holds the position of Director of Bands and Professor of Music at West Virginia University where his responsibilities include conducting the WVU Wind Symphony, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting, and providing administrative leadership for the WVU Bands program. Prior to his appointment at West Virginia University, Dr. Tobias served as Director of Bands at the University of Central Florida and as Associate Director of Bands at Appalachian State University. He also previously served as a high school band director in the public schools of Georgia and South Carolina. Additionally, Dr. Tobias has served as director of several community music organizations including the Youth Band of Orlando, the Macon Symphony Youth Orchestra, and the Appalachian Youth Wind Ensemble. Bands under Dr. Tobias' direction have performed nationally and internationally at events such as the College Band Directors National Association Southern Division Conference, the New York Wind Band Festival in Carnegie Hall, the Western International Band Clinic, the Cabalgata de Reyes (Madrid, Spain), the London New Year's Day Parade, and the Bands of America National Concert Band Festival. Dr. Tobias remains active as a guest conductor and clinician working with collegiate honor bands, all-state bands, and district honor bands throughout the United States. Additionally, he has presented sessions at numerous state music educator conferences as well as the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic. Dr. Tobias has been recognized with election to membership in the prestigious American Bandmasters Association and was named West Virginia Bandmaster of the Year by Phi Beta Mu. He is also a recipient of the University of North Carolina Board of Governors Excellence in Teaching Award as well as the Hayes School of Music Outstanding Teacher Award. Dr. Tobias is a Past President of the National Band Association and a Past President of the Big 12 Band Directors Association. He currently serves as Executive Secretary of the National Band Association. Additional professional affiliations include Phi Beta Mu, College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, West Virginia Music Educators Association, Pi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, Sigma Alpha Iota, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. A native of South Carolina, Dr. Tobias earned the Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from Furman University, the Master of Music Education degree from the University of Georgia, and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Conducting from the University of Georgia.
