

little

Sacred Heart Theater
puts on "Little Women"
for spring musical

women

WHAT MAKES "LITTLE WOMEN" SO SPECIAL?

"My favorite thing is getting to feel like I am really dancing and singing in the 1800s. It's so fun to get to play such a diverse number of roles in this show."

Marjissa Burch, senior

"Little Women is so special to me because it is surrounded by the theme of family and love."

Caylen Judd, freshman

"I have enjoyed getting to create this show with so many amazing people. I have seen a shift in the senior class to show each other love and support."

Molly VonderHaar, senior

"Little Women is special to me because it is about the love and passion that fuels women and girls. This show is a love letter to all the girls at Sacred Heart."

Abby Jester, senior

"It's been special for me to get to join together with my friends and amazing directors to work on such a fun production."

Riley Hurm, senior

"The sister aspect of the show kinda hits home because all the girls I do theater with are like sisters to me."

Charlotte Brown, sophomore

"The fact that we're able to have a 'normal' show for the seniors makes it so special."

Alexis McLaughlin, senior

"It is my senior show, and my voice teacher who was also my best friend passed away to cancer my sophomore year. The last song I worked on with her was 'Some Things Are Meant To Be,' so this show is incredibly special to me."

Lola White, senior

Off to Massachusetts

Walking with a cane, senior Ava Schmidt plays an old man, Mr. Lawrence. It is common for SHA girls to take on the role of a male character, but never one as predominant as Mr. Lawrence. "My favorite part of the show was singing 'Off to Massachusetts,'" Schmidt said. "I loved playing a different character than I usually play."

Braxton Appeared

Holding tight to Clarissa, sophomore Amelia Brock plays the role of Braxton. Braxton is a character Joe March made up in one of her stories. "I like how I can make the character my own," Brock said. "By doing so, I can make the audience laugh."

Together We Are One

As the role of Marme, junior Shelby Davis embraces her four March girls. This show created many close cast connections and helped the actors see their full potential. "Playing Marme is special to me because it's allowed me to get to know some of my cast mates better and given me the chance to improve as both an actor and a singer," Davis said.

Aunt March

Owning the stage, senior Maddee Brown plays the role of Aunt March. Brown had an amazing time playing the role. "My favorite part about playing Aunt March was being able to play a sophisticated old lady," Brown said. "I get to yell at my best friend on stage!"

FEELING LIKE A March Valkyries share what it was like to play a March sister

"I don't have any siblings, so it has been so much fun getting to be able to work with my March sisters and be able to experience what having siblings feels like for a bit!"

Lola White, senior

"My favorite part about being one of the March sisters was the ability to connect with my cast. It was really interesting and fun to see how much each of us liked the March sister we played."

Sophie Wertz, senior

"I love being Beth for a number of reasons, but mainly because of my cast mates. I would do this show 1,000 times if it meant I could do it with my girls. I legitimately have so much love for my cast. Plus, I love the death scene!"

KJ Dickinson, junior

"My favorite part about playing Amy is being able to have sisters as my best friends because I only have brothers. But Amy is a very bratty character, so being a kid again was so much fun!"

Emerson Kueber, sophomore