Board has not met since the last meeting. No additional information. Board members have talked. The dorms was an agreement to look at the agreement.

Pruitt: Does the dorm need to be approved by the states legislature. Same company is being used by UK Board meets in Feb and in May Need a person in place by the November meeting to attend with him

2. Provost, Robert "Bud" Fischer

- The next budget cycle ('27) gets kicked off tomorrow. We are within out '26 budget.
- Ramp model review continues to be done
- Need Senate volunteers for PHD committee. Any senator is eligible.
- Need a Senate volunteer for the study of Glia
- Promotion and tenure approvals are moving right along.
- Enrollment, graduation numbers, and retention are back up.
We saw a 14% increase in college applications and an 8% increase in housing applications.
- Spiller: Some colleges are exploring expectations on research as we move forward. Are you anticipating an institutional policy on research quality?
  - Fischer: No. The flexible workload policy helps with this.
